What Cookies do we use on our site?

Our site uses only uses cookies strictly necessary for the operation of the community, which includes; to distinguish you from other users of our site and to determine the language of the site content, as well as for quality and fraud checking purposes.. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our site and also allows us to improve our site and our services to our clients. Some of these cookies expire when your browsing session ends and some continue for the period specified below for the reasons given.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our site. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our site. We also use them to recognise you when you return to our site. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below:
